

WB post-poll violence: CBI registers 11 FIRs

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, August 27

THE CBI HAS so far registered 11 FIRs related to incidents of murder, gangrape, and attempt to murder reported during the post-poll violence in West Bengal, with 99 people being named in the reports, officials said.

Some of the FIRs made public on Friday showed that one case pertained to the murder of a TMC worker, three were related to the murder and attempt to murder of BJP workers while four cases did not specify any party affinity of the

According to the FIRs, some victims were hacked to death, bludgeoned, bombed, strangled by mobs and gangraped victims or accused. According to the FIRs, some of the victims were hacked to death, bludgeoned, bombed, strangled by mobs and gangraped during the violence reported across West Bengal.

The agency has so far registered crimes reported from Bankura, Nadia, Kolkata, Cooch Behar, 24 North Pargana and Murshidabad, among others. In one case of murder, the women of the victims' family were sexually assaulted by a mob, the FIR alleged. The FIRs contained gruesome details of the crimes reported between May 2 and June 14.

On May 4, TMC supporters Sahinur Ahmed and Prosenjit were having dinner when four BJP supporters joined them. After the meal, Ahmed and Prosenjit were attacked, resulting in severe injuries, the FIR alleged. They were dragged to a nearby maize field and left there. While Prosenjit survived, Ahmed died, it said.

In a separate incident, the family of Arup Das, a BJP worker, was allegedly attacked at their house by a mob of 30 people who arrived in a pick-up truck at 3 am on May 5. Their leader, who is the prime accused, put a 'gamcha' around Das's neck and dragged him onto the vehicle as the mob beat his family and sexually abused the women of the house. Das was killed and his body hanged on a tree, the FIR alleged.

Meanwhile, three accused have been booked on the allegations of gangrape in Murshidabad, CBI spokesperson R C Joshi said here.

SC to Sebi: Don't take coercive steps against NDTV promoters

THE SUPREME COURT Friday asked markets regulator Sebi not to take any coercive steps against NDTV promoters Pranay Roy and Radhika Roy till it hears their pleas on September 3 against the penalty proceedings related to alleged violation of securities norms by concealing information from shareholders on loan agreements.

A bench headed by Chief Justice N V Ramana was requested by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Sebi) that the hearing on the pleas of the NDTV promoters be adjourned till next Friday.

"We will adjourn, but do not take any coercive step," the bench, which also comprised Justices Surya Kant and Aniruddha Bose, told Solicitor General Tushar Mehta who was appearing for the Sebi.

The bench asked senior advocate Mukul Rohatgi, appearing for the Roys, about the status of their appeal before the Securities Appellate Tribunal. The hearing is stuck as the third member of the tribunal is not there, Rohatgi said, adding that now the proceedings to levy the penalty have been initiated. — PTI
